

24 HOURS ITINERARY

While you could spend all day lulling on St. Kitts' golden beaches, there's much, much more to do in this tropical paradise. This one-day itinerary, ideal for cruise ship passengers disembarking at Basseterre, takes in the island's historic sights and scenic landscapes. Rent a car or hire a taxi.

Breakfast with a Caribbean Flair 8:30 a.m

Kick off the day with a traditional saltfish and Johnny cakes breakfast at open-air Ballahoo in Basseterre's historic heart.

Explore the Capital City 9:30 a.m

Filled with gingerbread-trimmed pastel cottages, Basseterre is a friendly, laid-back town ideal for a morning stroll. Be sure to stop by St. George's Anglican Church, Independence Square, and the National Museum.

Coastal Drive 10:30 a.m

Amble along the southern coast to Old Road Town. Just inland await the 17th-century ruins of a sugar mill at the historic Wingfield Estate; the flower-filled gardens of Romney Manor; and the Caribelle Batik Store, where artisans hand-print fabrics using 2,500-year-old techniques from Indonesia.

Visit a Mighty Fortress

12:00 p.m

Continue west along the coastal road through picturesque villages. You can't miss the towering bulk of Brimstone Hill Fortress National Park along the way, a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Dating from the 1690s, it provides an important look into the island's colonial past. Be sure to pick up an audio guide and map at the entrance.

The Story Behind "Amazing Grace"

2:30 p.m

Learn how ship captain John Newton came to write the beloved folk song "Amazing Grace"—and how it relates to St. Kitts—at the Amazing Grace Experience at Sandy Point.

Visit Belle Mont Farm

3:30 p.m

Head to the foothills of Mt. Luimiaga to Belle Mont Farm, a leading sustainable hotel set on a 400-acre organic farm. Sip on exotic cocktails made with farm fresh fruit and herbs at The Mill Bar, or dine on a late lunch of farm-to-table Caribbean-inspired cuisine at The Kitchen.

Be a Beach Bum

5:00 p.m

Be apart of the beach action of South Frigate Bay Beach. Splash in the surf, go for a sunset stroll along the one-mile stretch of white sand or follow the sound of Carriibbean rhythm to the many island bars that serve drinks, food, craft, and trinkets.

Fine Dining with a View

7:00 p.m

Sit down for Caribbean bouillabaisse at Serendipity restaurant or the grilled fish in coconut sauce at the beautiful Palm Court, both in Fortlands, Basseterre, offering breathtaking views over the harbor. Or if you plan to make an evening of it at Frigate Bay, there are plenty of restaurant options here as well.

Bar Hopping Along The Strip

8:30 p.m

Enjoy rum punch and dance the night away to a live DJ or band at the many buzzing, spirited beachside bars along The Strip in Frigate Bay.

